

Privacy Policy

YMCA Manchester are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. Whenever you provide any personal information to us, we will treat your information in accordance with this privacy policy and in accordance with General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

We use cookies on our websites. By using our website you agree to this policy and you consent to our use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy.

As such:

- we do not sell, rent or lease customer lists to third parties
- we only send you emails we think you will find useful and only after obtaining your consent; you may stop them at any time by using the unsubscribe link in the emails you receive
- we never disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations
- we are committed to protecting the security of your personal information by using robust technology and procedures
- to continually improve our services, we may collect, use and disclose your information only as described in this policy.

For further information, please read the policy below. The policy applies to data collection and usage on the YMCA Manchester websites (including Y Club and Castlefield Hotel) and services.

Personal information we may collect

When you sign up for membership, book a hotel stay, donate, register online, take part in a sponsored event, contact us or interact with us in any other way, YMCA Manchester may receive personal information about you, such as your name, address, telephone number, email address.

Both YMCA Manchester and its operational partners collect and use your personal information such as credit/debit card/bank details to create a billing account to operate and deliver services to you.

How we use your information

We will use your information in several ways, such as processing a donation/membership/booking request that you have made, sending you information about YMCA Manchester's services, sending you communication you have subscribed to or responding to correspondence you have sent to us.

We will not contact you for marketing purposes unless you have given your express consent. You also have the right to advise us at any time if you no longer wish to receive any further communications from us that you might have consented to.

Disclosure of your information

We will keep your personal information confidential and will not disclose it to any third party without your consent, unless we are obliged to do so by law.

We sometimes use third parties to process your information on our behalf (for example, to process a donation, membership or booking). However, we require them to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own business purposes.

Accessing, updating and deleting your personal information

You can ask us what information we hold about you at any time by contacting us.

Please also help us to keep your information up to date by letting us know of any changes. We may contact you from time to time to make sure that the details we hold about you are correct.

Individuals have a right to have personal data erased and to prevent processing. To request your data is removed from our databases please email info@ymcamanchester.org.uk.
